Rules and Regulations

—OF THE—

Monterey Free Library.

1. The Monterey Free Library shall be free to all residents of Monterey over twelve years of age who shall conform to the rules and regulations of the Library.

2. Persons temporarily residing in town may enjoy the privileges of the Library on the same conditions as residents, provided that in taking books they furnish a satisfactory guarantee or deposit with the Librarian the value of the book taken.

3. Every person entitled to borrow books from the Library shall receive a card bearing his name. This card must always be presented on taking out a book and also on returning or renewing a book. Each card holder will be held responsible for any book drawn by means of his card.

4. No book will be transferred from one card to another. New books of fiction can be kept only two weeks, until they have been in the Library for one year, and can not be renewed. All other books can be kept two weeks and can be renewed but once.

5. Any person keeping a book beyond the specified time shall pay a fine of five cents a week. Any book retained one week beyond that time may be sent for by the Librarian and a messenger's fee charged to the borrower in addition to the fine. New books can not be taken until all fines are paid.

6. Library books must not be loaned out of the borrower's family.

7. Only one book can be taken at a time. This rule shall not apply to teachers in the public schools of the town, when taking books for use in their school, for whom special cards will be provided.

8. Any person defacing or injuring any book will incur a fine not exceeding the value of the book. Books lost or damaged must be replaced by the borrower. Writing or pencil marking on books is unconditionally forbidden. Corners of leaves must not be turned down. Borrowers finding any book mutilated or defaced are requested to report it, so that they may not be held responsible.

9. All persons visiting the Library will be required to conduct themselves quietly and to avoid loud conversation. Any person abusing the privileges of the Library by improper conduct will be denied its use or admission to it.

10. Only the Trustees and the Librarian shall have access to the book shelves. Others shall use the slips that will be provided.
